Dear Mr. Steve Darnowsky,

Hi! I had the chance to hear your presentation at the webinar today hosted by Human Rights Media. I am actually attending college now in Georgia, and I was delighted to see that someone was representing the state of Georgia at this international event! I wanted to write this letter to you to express that your passion in protecting the youth by providing them effective resources and ways to embrace all people from different faiths through Gwinnett Interfaith Alliance is extremely inspiring.

At the seminar, I was moved when I saw you continuing to strive for the goal of establishing a safe foundation for all children to no longer be confused in their faith choices, but rather be encouraged by being welcomed into a community that will accept and embrace all members regardless of background. I was not even aware of what the Good News Club is, nor of the practices they promote that can hinder the growth and interaction with any children who do not share the same beliefs as the Good News Club.

However, to combat against Good News Club and any other body that tries to disturb our communities' youth, you have been working hard to establish and create the Gwinnett Interfaith Alliance, and I thank you for having the heart to want to protect our state's community and to establish a brighter, peaceful future. I look forward to hearing more from you in the future! Thank you so much for all that you do.

Thank you,
Malcolm
